

Hudson Global Scholars®

YOU'RE INVITED!

The U.S. Embassy and Hudson Global Scholars cordially invite you to an exclusive reception in Warsaw. Join us at this insightful event exploring the future of K-12 education and the latest trends in online and hybrid learning.

Event Details:

- Date: Thursday, February 19
- Time: 10:00 AM-12:00 PM
- Location: The Westin Warsaw Hotel, al. Jana Pawła II 21, 00-854 Warszawa

Program Highlight:

Incorporating the Benefits of an American K-12 Education

Discover how an American K-12 education can transform global learning experiences through online and hybrid models, enhancing student success and development.

Featuring: Patricia Hoge, Ph.D.

Chief Academic Officer, Hudson Global Scholars

A global expert in K-12 online and hybrid education, Dr. Patricia Hoge has a Ph.D. in K-12 Educational Leadership and years of experience with organizations like Pearson and eSylvan. Dr. Hoge has pioneered curriculum innovation, shaping the future of digital learning. Her work has earned her prestigious awards, including recognition in early education innovation from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and awards from the U.S. Distance Learning Association for Outstanding Leadership and Best Practices in Distance Learning.

Please feel free to invite your school colleagues. As space is limited, please RSVP by Tuesday, February 10 to secure your spot at this free event.

Please RSVP to Malgorzata.Blaszczak-Salvacion@trade.go

www.hudsonglobalscholars.com/Poland

Hudson Global Scholars®